

ANIMAL NUTRITION

Classify

Put any animal's name according to the type of food it eats. (Remember to write the animal's classification.)

- 1. Herbivores: they eat plants for example _____ and _____.
- 2. Carnivores: they eat the flesh of other animals such as _____ and _____.
- 3. Omnivores: they eat both meat and plants. For example _____ and _____ and _____.

HOW ANIMALS BREATHE

Complete the sentences with words from the box.

_____ animals breathe in a very similar way to how humans breathe. In contrast aquatic animals _____ and _____.

In many terrestrial animals the _____ system is similar to the human respiratory system and has two lungs. Other animals produce waste that is exhaled called _____ instead of _____.

Most aquatic animals like _____ breathe in water. These animals have special cells _____.

Some animals like _____ get oxygen through lungs. These are called _____ animals. Like the _____ and the _____, these animals have to breathe regularly in order to breathe.

amphibians
arthropods
birds
fish
insects
mammals
reptiles

