

Linking words

Adding

And	He speaks English and French.
Also	I have a good apartment, and also a good salary vision.
Too	He knows his mother, and his brother too.
as well	He speaks English and French as well.
Besides	Besides French, he speaks English.
Not only ... but also	He speaks not only French, but also English.

Contrasting

But	He is small, but he is very strong.
However	Money, however, said nothing to the boss.
Although	Although this mathematical law, it did not stop him from working.
Despite	She was not sick, despite his magic spells.
In spite of	In spite of his magic spells, she was not sick.
Nevertheless	I was horrible to look at. Nevertheless, please see that you will never love me.
On the contrary	She did not love him, on the contrary, she despised him.

Expressing cause and result

Because	It doesn't matter, because that doesn't matter.
Thanks to	By the pleasure from such efforts because of the effort.
so	He was happy, so he sat and studied for you.
So ... that	It was so cold that he could not feel his fingers.
so	As it is the last year, I'll forget you.
Therefore	There are no more, therefore you must work hard.
That's why only	I was sleeping, that's why I didn't hear the bell.
Consequently	I was sleeping, consequently I didn't hear the bell.
For this reason	I was sleeping, for this reason I didn't hear the bell.
Thus ... so	It's too early for me to get up.
Not enough ... to	I don't have enough money to buy all these clothes.

Expressing purpose

To	The boss is language, the best way is to live in the country where it speaks.
In order to	In order to, learn a language, the best way is to live in the country where it speaks.
So that	I completely understand but so that it means the same as (to).
So	What are you learning English for?

Giving examples

For example	Write about a game, think for example.
For instance	I was not really about a game, football for instance.
Such as	I was not really about a game, such as chess if you wish.