

Name _____ Date _____

NO BLANKS! UNDERSTAND THIS!

Independent clauses require the subject of a sentence with a verb, usually at the end of the sentence.

Underline each of the independent clauses. Underline the subject of the independent clause and explain the subject of each sentence with the correct pronouns.

1. The boat is in the open air harbor.

2. The dog and baby walked onto the boat.

3. The grass and flowers were growing beautifully.

4. The boat was for the first time open.

5. The woman carefully raised the boat.

6. The little dog barked much of the time.

7. A boat was there all through the winter.

8. The dog was extremely old.

9. The boat was an unusual ship.

10. The boat's glowing light lit up the harbor.
