

Name: _____

Date: _____

Is it Alliteration or Not Worksheet?

Alliteration is a stylistic device in which a number of words, having the same consonant sound, occur close together in a series.

Ex. Peter picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Directions: Read each sentence or phrase below. Write "alliteration" if it gives an example of alliteration and write "not alliteration" if it does not.

Example A: I rowed the boat in the sinfully silent sea.

Answer: alliteration

1. We ran around the block two times.

2. Sarah sells sea shells by the sea shore.

3. Go gather green leaves in the garden.

4. I need to study for my test.

5. Come and clean your closet.

6. Please put your plate away.
