

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA IN SYSTEMS
INTEGRATED BUSINESS PROGRAM

- 10 -

1. Write an essay about what children's government would look like and how it would work?

Example:

There would be a group of children who would be in charge of the government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

Other:

The children's government would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government. They would be in charge of the children's government.

2. Write a letter:

A. To the President: → Why don't you _____?

B. To the Senate: → Why don't _____?

C. To the House: → Why don't you _____?

D. To the Court: → Why don't _____?

E. To the People: → Why don't _____?