

ACADEMIC PROGRAM REVIEW SUBSTANCE AREA WORKSHEET

Substance Area #6 – FAMILY RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

e.g., Goal Setting and Decision-Making; Development and Allocation of Resources; Social Environment Influences; Life Cycle and Family Structure Influences; Consumer Issues and Decisions

List all courses offered that contain content relevant to this substance area.

Course Number, Title, and Department

Number of Credit Hours (Quarter or Semester)

FCS=Family & Consumer Sciences

Student must complete one of the following:

FCS 952 Family Financial Management 3 Semester Credits
“Considers consumer issues and decision, allocation of resources including time, environment and life cycle influences and goal setting and decision making.”

OR

FCS 980 Issues in Marriage and Family 3 Semester Credits
“Issues in marriage and family interaction patterns and intervention, communication and intimacy, families in crisis, family stress, resource allocation, power & gender roles.”
Required Class

AND

BSN108 Consumer Financial Management 3 Semester Credits
“The study of money management and comprehensive financial planning skills for long-range and immediate goals of individuals and families. Includes credit management, consumer economics, personal finance, money and banking, retirement and estate planning.”

SAMPLE

If more space is needed, please continue on an additional page. Include substance area in top right corner of page & number each additional page.