Dear Mr. X,

My name is Peter and I am a student at 4th grade. I'm writing this letter because I don't know what to do. I have problems at school. Last year my classmates were good partners but this year they have started bullying me and I feel miserable at times! They often call me names and laugh at me... I feel really bad. They discriminate me because I'm fat and short and wear glasses. I don't understand why they do that. I just study all the time and never complain about their treatment but now I'm desperate!

Last week I told the teachers about the situation but they said I was exaggerating. One of the teachers said I should ignore them, but I can't! Things are getting worse everyday. What should I do?
