

Benjamin Franklin

On January 17, 1706, Benjamin Franklin was born, in Boston, Massachusetts. Described as the "elder statesman of the American Revolution,"

Franklin was the oldest signer of both the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

He was a scientist, diplomat, author, printer, and philanthropist.

He died in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on April 17, 1790.

