

Pre-writing

1. Circle all the prepositions in the following paragraph.

The sun shined over the highway toward the base of the mountain. Within an hour, my background of the front of the mountains, and we began our ascent toward the summit. The nearby roads were lined up in many parts of the mountain on a narrow, winding road. My team and I set off toward the summit. We set up camp for lunch, water, and food. The weather was perfect. We were making. The mountain the summit were breathtaking.

2. Fill in the correct preposition.

I was sitting _____ the car.

I was surprised _____ the tall building.

She is very interested _____ sports, goes through the's gym at it.

I still want _____ my brother) when he told me he had married.

She went to live _____ her mother.

3. Make sentences with the following prepositions.

- behind
- by
- for
- from
- into
- up

© 2014 Cambridge University Press