

asking for opinions

Example 1

Tom: How are you getting along in school?
George: Not.
Tom: What are the major problems for you?

Example 2

Tom: How are the classes getting along with you?
George: Really, it's interesting!
Tom: What are you like in the class?

Example 3

Tom: How are the classes at your school?
George: Not.
Tom: What's the best part of the program for you?
George: It's the staff, really well.
Tom: That's all.

Example 4

Tom: How are the classes at your school?
George: It's interesting, really well.
Tom: That's all.

My dictionary

Example 1

Myron: How are you? The weather is nice, isn't it?
Tom: It's a nice weather.
Myron: What are you doing?
Tom: I'm studying.
Myron: What are you studying?
Tom: I'm studying.
Myron: How are you getting along?
Tom: Not.
Myron: What are the major problems for you?

asking for things

Myron: How are you getting along?
Tom: Not.
Myron: What are the major problems for you?
Tom: Not.
Myron: What are the major problems for you?

asking for things

Tom: How are you getting along?
Myron: Not.
Tom: What are the major problems for you?