

Subject: 7th Grade World Cultures & Geography--Unit/ Lesson: Intro to class & Geography of Middle East
 Dates: 08-4 to 08-06, 2009 Week # 1 Irving

Date GPS Standards... Objective...	Activities...Performance Task... Procedures & Resources/materials Essential Questions... Enduring Understanding..	Bloom's/Costa's Questions Assessment Formative - teacher observation Summative- Unit Test	SIP Goals/ Reading & Writing Across the Curriculum
Monday Aug 2	Pre Planning
Tuesday Aug 3	Pre Planning
Wednesday Aug 4	Pre Planning...Meet and Greet
Thursday Aug 5 SS7G5 a, b SS7G7 b SS7G8 a,b	Essential Question: Why are people attracted to certain regions to live? Warm Up: Find a seat and determine which 'cardinal' direction you would be facing if you looked out the window. Introductions to class, course expectations, following directions activity (Line up according to height without verbal communication; line up according to age without using verbal communication) Why is communication important to accomplish goals? Think-Pair-Share	Formative
Friday Aug 6 SS7G5 a, b SS7G7 b SS7G8 a,b	Essential Question: Why are people attracted to certain regions to live? Warm Up: What do you think classroom rules should be? Introduction to textbook: in cooperative pairs, complete textbook scavenger hunt activity. What do you remember from last year? Longitude / latitude 5 themes of geography Types of government and economic systems What has been in the news that you should know about?	Formative	