

the thinking that you have when you disagree or have a very high opinion of somebody a soft food that has in it lots of other things, such as salad or cooked or vegetable; there is a juice that is like it the place where children go to be educated a person that you know and like who is not a member of your family © 2000 Pearson Education, Inc. All rights reserved.