BINGO

He / She said that he/she loved living in Auckland.	He / She told you that he/she had toast for breakfast.	He / She said that he/she liked English songs.
He / She said that he/she thought that learning English was difficult.	He / She told me that he/she is married.	He / She said that apple was his/her favorite fruit
He / She told you that he/she took the bus going to Edenz.	He / She said that Russian was his/her first language.	He / She said that he/she worked yesterday.

BINGO

He / She said that he/she loved living in Auckland.	He / She told you that he/she had toast for breakfast.	He / She said that he/she liked English songs.
He / She said that he/she thought that learning English was difficult.	He / She told me that he/she is married.	He / She said that apple was his/her favorite fruit
He / She told you that he/she took the bus going to Edenz.	He / She said that Russian was his/her first language.	He / She said that he/she worked yesterday.

BINGO

He / She said that he/she loved living in Auckland.	He / She told you that he/she had toast for breakfast.	He / She said that he/she liked English songs.
He / She said that he/she thought that learning English was difficult.	He / She told me that he/she is married.	He / She said that apple was his/her favorite fruit
He / She told you that he/she took the bus going to Edenz.	He / She said that Russian was his/her first language.	He / She said that he/she worked yesterday.

BINGO

He / She said that he/she loved living in Auckland.	He / She told you that he/she had toast for breakfast.	He / She said that he/she liked English songs.
He / She said that he/she thought that learning English was difficult.	He / She told me that he/she is married.	He / She said that apple was his/her favorite fruit
He / She told you that he/she took the bus going to Edenz.	He / She said that Russian was his/her first language.	He / She said that he/she worked yesterday.