

UNIT 25 – ADJECTIVE CLAUSES

6. Match the following verbs in Column A with examples in Column B.

1. "I don't know" precedes a clause	a) "I don't know" precedes a clause
2. "I don't know" is at the end	b) "I don't know" is at the end
3. "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause	c) "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause
4. "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end	d) "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end
5. "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end	e) "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end
6. "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end	f) "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end
7. "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end	g) "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end
8. "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end	h) "I don't know" is at the beginning of a clause, but "I don't know" is at the end