

Name _____

Section _____

Theater in Greece

Directions: Read pp.183-185 and answer the following questions in sentence form.

1. What type of Greek play is about suffering?
2. What type of Greek play is about humorous things and had happy endings?
3. During what events were the plays performed AND how long did they last?
4. Who was allowed to act? How were they dressed?
5. What did the Greeks consider a public responsibility?
6. What is a soliloquy?
7. Who were the three great writers of tragedies AND what kind of plays did each one write? Describe what they wrote about.
8. Why did actors wear heavy clothing and funneled masks?
9. What did Greek theaters look like?
10. What did the author of the winning play receive from the citizen judges?
11. Should support of the theater be a public responsibility? Why or why not? This is an opinion question.