

Desert Plants

Read each passage about desert plants and answer the questions.

1. The saguaro cactus grows in the Sonoran Desert.
It can grow to be sixty feet tall.
The saguaro cactus is a very slow growing plant.

Where does the saguaro cactus grow?

2. The palo verde tree is the state tree of Arizona.
The palo verde tree blossoms in May and June with tiny yellow flowers.
It is a very pretty tree.

What is the state tree of Arizona?

3. The pinocushion cactus is a low growing cactus shaped somewhat like a pinocushion.
It looks as if it has pins sticking out of it.
The pinocushion cactus produces fruit that is red, green or yellow.

What animal could you call a pinocushion animal?

4. The barrel cactus does not grow very tall.
Inside the barrel cactus is a substance that is the source of cactus candy.
The barrel cactus is sometimes called the compass cactus.

What can be made from a barrel cactus?

5. The yucca plant is a very versatile plant.
The roots can be pounded and soaked then used to make shampoo.

What is one product you can make from the yucca plant?

