

Name: _____ Date: _____
 Class: _____ Teacher: _____

The Children of Bolivia

Complete the activity.

ACROSS

4. Alpacas and _____ serve as pack animals and are also sources of wool and meat to the people of Bolivia.
6. One of the primary groups that make up the Bolivian population is the _____, descended from the Tiahuanacans.
7. Bolivian resources of _____ were mined out during Spanish occupation.
8. The _____ mountains run through Bolivia.
9. Bolivia has two capital cities. La Paz, the actual capital, is Bolivia's largest city and the highest capital in the world. _____ is Bolivia's official capital.

DOWN

1. Lake _____ is the highest navigable lake in the world.
2. Descendants of African workers brought to Bolivia by the Spanish to mine silver, live today in the _____ which are the jungle valleys east of the northern Andes.
3. Every town in Bolivia has a _____ saint.
5. The _____, descended from the Incas, is the second of the two groups that make up most of Bolivia's population.
6. Bolivia is located in the middle of South _____.

| | | | |
|-------------|-----------|-----------|------------|
| 1. Titicaca | 4. Sucre | 7. Quecha | 10. llamas |
| 2. Aymara | 5. Yungas | 8. Andes | |
| 3. America | 6. silver | 9. patron | |