

Date _____

Select an independent reading book that you have just read or are about to finish reading.

Select one of the following three prompts. Draw an X in the box next to the prompt and write a reading response in the space provided. Cite the text at least two times in your response.

How does the lesson in this story remind you of a time when you learned a valuable lesson?

How is the theme in this text different than the theme in another text you've read?

How does an event in this story remind you of something that has happened at your school or in your community?

[illegible]