An adverb is a word that describes a verb, an adjective, or another adverb. Adverbs fall into three categories; When, Where, and How.
Directions: Complete ear that tells how.	ch sentence with the correct adverb in parenthesis
Example A: The tall player careful) Answer: quickly	jumped for the ball. (quickly /
1.	_ listened for my name to be called. (greedily / quietly
2. The man	took all the money. (happy / greedily)
3. My son	tucked in his shirt. (gentle / neatly)
 The basketball player quickly) 	ran up the court. (quick /
5. The boy	accepted his award. (glad / happily)
6. The class quietly)	waited for their teacher to speak. (happy /
7. The ballerina	danced on stage. (eager / gracefully)
8. The young boy (slowly / careful)	walked up to the neighbors house
9. The race car driver suddenly)	turned his car around. (sudden /
10. The bus	made a turnaround. (rapidly / rapid)

11. We _____ lifted the cover off the bed. (gently / easy)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Adverbs that tell How Worksheet

Adverbs that tell How Worksheet