Ancient Egyptians

The Ancient Egyptians were one of the greatest civilizations of the past. They lived 4,000 years ago.
Egypt is in North East Africa.

Egypt has a river that runs through the country. It is called the River Nile and it is where most of the Ancient Egyptians lived.
The River Nile is the longest river in the world.

The River Nile was very important to the Ancient Egyptians and is still important to modern Egyptians today.

Egypt is a hot desert country with little rainfall. In Egypt today nearly 95% of the population live near the River Nile.

The Ancient Egyptians depended on the River Nile for water and transport. Each year the river would flood creating fertile ground for the Ancient Egyptians to grow their crops.
