

Animal Tracks

Animal tracks are the imprints left behind in soil, snow, mud, or other ground surfaces that an animal walks across. Animal tracks are used by hunters to tracking their prey and by naturalists to identify animals living in a given area. Draw a line to match the animal to the correct foot prints.

Most appropriate for grades 1 to 2.