

Description:	Read the following scenario and answer the questions. (Answer in one sentence. Choose the appropriate questions from the list and offer your answer for each question. There are 10 questions.)
1.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Home evaluations are supposed to be fair and objective. ■ Considerations must be given when there is a house that has been damaged by fire. ■ If there is more than one house that has been damaged, the houses must be considered separately. ■ When calculating the insurance premium, the age of the house is taken into account. ■ When calculating the insurance premium, the location of the house is taken into account. ■ Home evaluations are supposed to be fair and objective. ■ Home evaluations are supposed to be fair and objective. ■ Home evaluations are supposed to be fair and objective. ■ Home evaluations are supposed to be fair and objective.
2.	What: According to the book, who is responsible for the fire? (Answer in one sentence.)
3.	What: Who's responsible for the house? (Answer in one sentence.) Reason: House fire (quadruplets) _____
4.	What: House, about 100 years old, you try to find out how much it would cost to repair it. (Answer in one sentence.)
5.	What: You try to find out _____ Reason: It took the house a long time to build, it's old. (Answer in one sentence.)
6.	What: You are the CEO of your company. (Answer in one sentence.) Reason: You just had a major change in management. (Answer in one sentence.)
7.	What: You're trying to sell a house. (Answer in one sentence.) Reason: You're trying to sell a house. (Answer in one sentence.)
8.	What: You're trying to sell a house. (Answer in one sentence.) Reason: You're trying to sell a house. (Answer in one sentence.)
9.	What: You're trying to sell a house. (Answer in one sentence.) Reason: You're trying to sell a house. (Answer in one sentence.)
10.	What: You're trying to sell a house. (Answer in one sentence.) Reason: You're trying to sell a house. (Answer in one sentence.)