

Ethical Dilemmas Worksheet

Student Name:

1. What is the ethical issue or problem? Identify the issue precisely.

The issue is a consultation offer with the ethical dilemma of a recruitment firm for the football club in connection of a 17' athlete of 2000 and a 16-year-old footballer (mother of 17-year-old) from the club. The recruitment firm is offering the recruitment of the 17-year-old footballer from the club. The recruitment firm is offering the recruitment of the 17-year-old footballer from the club. The recruitment firm is offering the recruitment of the 17-year-old footballer from the club.

2. What are the main stakeholders? Which have major influence? Are there any other stakeholders involved? Include any important potential outcomes, costs or public concerns, and include management facts.

The football club is the main stakeholder. The recruitment firm is the other stakeholder. The football club is the main stakeholder. The recruitment firm is the other stakeholder. The football club is the main stakeholder. The recruitment firm is the other stakeholder.

3. Identify each stakeholder's moral role and its relation to the interests of the other stakeholders. From the perspective of the moral agent, the following considerations are ethical issues of public moral obligation in regard to the recruitment offer.

Stakeholder (Moral agent)	Stakeholder Interest in the situation	Perceptions (How does the stakeholder hope will happen?)
Club	Recruitment	The recruitment firm will offer the 17-year-old footballer to the club.
Recruitment firm	Recruitment	The recruitment firm will offer the 17-year-old footballer to the club.
Footballer	Recruitment	The recruitment firm will offer the 17-year-old footballer to the club.