

Multiple Choice Worksheet

Directions: Read each question carefully. Eliminate as many options as possible by drawing a slash line through the corresponding letter(s). Circle the letter(s) of one or two options that may be the correct answer. After answering each question, listen for the explanation to self-correct your answers. Write reasons for eliminating certain options on your worksheet for reference later.

Question 1:

Key words are hidden delinquency. I might consider how the word "hidden" relates to delinquency here.

The term "hidden delinquency" refers to the fact that:

- A. many delinquent acts are performed in backward areas and not known to the general public.
- B. many delinquent acts are never brought to official court attention
- C. many neighborhoods make a practice of hiding delinquents from the police
- D. wealthy families do not notice when their children are delinquent
- E. social agencies shield delinquents from the police

Question 2:

Key words are sociology and can provide.

Sociology, like any branch of knowledge, can provide us with:

- A. expert agreement on human behavior
- B. approximations of the truth
- C. undebatable answers
- D. solutions to social problems
- E. knowledge of absolute truths

Question 3:

Key words are modern and punishment. In this question, one is looking for a general conclusion pertaining to punishment or modern theories of punishment.