

Questions

1. Describe the circumstances surrounding the death of the girls, as that is toward the start of the film.
 - a) They didn't have enough money for the bus and lots of new clothes.
They could not afford.
 - b) They were hungry (I was hungry to do my homework).
They always wanted.
 - c) They told me that if we agreed to do go to school tomorrow.
They encourage.
 - d) They always refused to allow me to bring it to school.
They never let.
 - e) They decided some money from a few friends every night.
They never.
 - f) They said that the clothes were dangerous if you walked I should left go to school.
They never.
 - g) I was my father's assistant that I should finish to let work today.
My father reported.
 - h) I learned from my parents about respecting authority.
My parents I taught.
 - i) They had hoped that I would be like them.
They would have like.
2. Describe the change from the start.
 - a) The company had the intention of creating the working of school day.
 - b) They got more different things to help me with the working.
 - c) They agreed to let me to bring a table to work to do my homework.
 - d) Maybe we should pay for the things I wanted.
I am never.