

Hooks

A Hook is the FIRST sentence of the introduction to a personal experience narrative. It should GRAB the reader and pull them in without giving away too much!

1. Eye-Darting Hook:

As I fit-fled down the hall, I saw the door to the hall closet ajar. "Could my presents be hidden in there?" I wondered.

Example _____

2. Question Hook:

Have you ever wanted something you knew was bad for you?

Example _____

3. Live in My Memory Hook:

The day I got to fly through the trees is a day that will live in my memory forever.

Example _____

4. Talking Hook:

"WOOD-LOOOO!" I cheered as I accomplished the one goal I set for myself this season.

Example _____

5. I Never Expected Hook:

When we loaded into the car to head out for our summer vacation, I never expected to have the time of my life, but I did!

Example _____

6. Sound Effect Hook:

Ghlinglingling! That's the sound the toilet made when I watched my favorite stuffed animal clog the drain.

Example _____