

	The first African American who has been elected the President of the United States of America. He was born in Georgia.
	He was the first person elected into the White House and the first female professor at the University of Paris. The theory of relativity was created by her and her own abstract, political and religious views influenced by her.
	He was a Dutch Post Impressionist painter. He moved to France, where his skills were developed and many famous paintings were painted. Jesus was his favored place on Earth. The self-portrait painting Self-Portrait was painted by him.
	She was also known as the Mona Lisa. It is a 16th century portrait painted in oil by Leonardo da Vinci during the Italian Renaissance. The work is owned by the Government of France and is on the wall in the Louvre in Paris, with the title Portrait of Lisa Gherardini, wife of Francesco del Giocondo. It is perhaps the most famous and widely painted in the world.