

Name _____ Date _____ Block _____

Pronouns

Monday: Underline the pronoun(s) in each sentence below.

1. Williamsburg is a special place that reflects our colonial history.
2. You might watch a cook as she stirs her stew at the fireplace.
3. Candlelight casts its soft glow over the kitchen.
4. To whom am I speaking?
5. Whom will you invite to your birthday party?
6. I'm pretty good at card tricks. Let me try these.
7. Everybody brought his or her backpack with dry socks.
8. Some of the lake pollution was down from its all-time high.

Tuesday: In each sentence, underline the personal pronoun once and its antecedent twice.

1. Take time to look up at the stars. They are beautiful and fascinating.
2. Look at the constellation. Do you see that is starts to look like a hunter?
3. Stargazing has kept its fascination for centuries.
4. Around 200 B.C. Babylonians looked up at the sky to find their future.
5. According to the Babylonians, the stars were important because their movements influenced events on Earth.

Wednesday: On the line, write the pronoun that correctly completes each sentence. Also underline the antecedent(s) of the pronoun.

1. Uncle Jack is driving a new pickup truck. He just bought _____.
2. March should carry _____ own backpack.
3. Blake and Steve put _____ return bottles on the counter.

In each set, circle the letter of the sentence that is stated more clearly.

1. A. Bill and John went to the lake, and he fell in.
B. Bill and John went to the lake and John fell in.
2. A. When Mom and my sister went shopping, Mom couldn't decide what to buy.
B. When Mom and my sister when shopping, she couldn't decide what to buy.