THE CLASSICS OF LITERATURE FROM FRENCH RENAISSANCE

Young people are not reading appropriate classical texts with the effects of positive psychology and maturity. The main obstacle of educational success is the lack of reading material which makes them lose interest and prevents understanding. After a young person doesn't have the opportunity to read appropriate classical texts, it becomes a difficult experience.

Other obstacles, reading appropriate texts are dangerous for young people. They are often too demanding, they are often too long, they are often too difficult to understand. However, it is more important to provide young people with the right material, not to provide them with the right material. The main obstacle of reading is the lack of reading material.
