

Name _____

Figurative Language

Identify types of figurative language.

Complete the sentences by adding figurative language. Write the type of figurative language used on the line.

A simile is a comparison between two unlike things, using like or as.
Katie was as mad as a hornet when her sister broke her toy.

A metaphor is a comparison between two unlike things, without using like or as.
The sound of a roller coaster was music to his ears.

A personification gives human characteristics and qualities to nonhuman things.
The flowers begged for water.

A hyperbole is a deliberate exaggeration.
I have a million pages of homework tonight.

1. The cold winter air _____

2. Our house _____

3. Suddenly the players became _____

4. The large trees _____

5. He got in his car _____

6. The stack of homework _____
