

Nom _____ Date _____

French uses reflexive pronoun to express the idea of "myself, yourself, himself, etc". Verbs describing daily personal routines frequently require the reflexive pronoun. However some verbs can be used both with reflexive pronouns and without. Note the examples below and then complete the activities.

Caroline lave la voiture.
Caroline washes the car

Ensuite, Caroline se lave.
Afterwards, she washes herself

Gaston regarde Caroline.
Gaston looks at Juliette

Caroline se regarde dans la glace.
Caroline looks at herself in the mirror

Gaston achète des fleurs à Caroline.
Gaston buys flowers for Caroline

Gaston s'achète une glace.
He buys himself an ice-cream cone.

Caroline prépare le déjeuner à Gaston.
Caroline prepares Gaston's lunch.

Elle se prépare pour sortir.
She prepares herself to go out.