

Complete or Incomplete Sentences Worksheet 1

A sentence expresses a complete thought.

- Mom always puts parsley in her sauce. This is a sentence.
- Puts parsley in her sauce. This is not a sentence.

Write S by each group of words that make a complete sentence. Write I by the group of words that do not make a complete sentence.

1. _____ He was a hero to the in the hearts and minds of the people.
2. _____ Birds' eggs are almost as different from each other as are the birds themselves.
3. _____ A funny noise.
4. _____ Deciduous trees lose their leaves in winter.
5. _____ Was waiting outside in the van.
6. _____ A whale is not a fish.
7. _____ Round a corner.

8.

PART TWO

The zombie had to cut back to serve. _____
a slave's stomach, a signal that it was time to come out of _____ The slayer arrived at Taco Bell, fork and arrow in hand. _____
one of the walking dead in the restaurant's kitchen. The zombie had a spearhead in each ear of _____ his zombie hands. The zombie howled toward the spearheads as they _____ drove into the spearheads and went through the zombie's _____ _____ never wanted to eat Taco Bell after that day, but the slayer would always _____ _____ have an appetite for destruction.