

Self Assessment – Speaking and Listening

Topic – Act out a Missing Scene from “An Inspector Calls”

Objective – Rehearse your act that you have created for the assessment also create a script to go with that play. The following must be included in the play. Mr Birling, Mrs Birling and their daughter Sheila

Overview

The Scene that my group performed was about Mr and Mrs Birling going out to run some errands of some sort that was their original day planned out anyway. Sheila then comes in acting all excited and contented about the day she had today and wanted to share it with her parents. Sybil (Mrs Birling) being the character she wasn't at all interested and said “Sheila, we are just going out now for a while, and we will talk about this matter later”. However, on the other hand Mr Birling was eager to hear what his daughter had to say and so opposed Sybil and replied “ Here Sybil, I'm sure she has something urgent to talk about. Oh dear (turning towards Sheila) why don't you join us for a spot of tea and cake . Sybil was obviously not pleased about her husband's decision and simply replied with an agitated remark “Oh if she must”. Sheila being exultant couldn't refuse the offer and took it with open arms. At this point we all go over to the table and sit down to talk as if it was a restaurant. The scene then led to the restaurant where Sybil started the conversation with a question referring to Sheila's urgent news.

Sheila's urgent news was simply discussing her and Gerald's relationship and how it
