

Reading Material

Adapted from Chapter 1 "Introduction to the Study of Psychology" by Michael S. Gazzaniga, 2015, Psychology: Foundations and Applications, 11th Edition, London

Episode 1	John Dashiell was reportedly lost in the dark woods of Selby Moorland. His wits, his calm, his quick thinking for survival turned into an extraordinary feat. Light 2 was my best friend and the rest of his life was. There's a strong hint of the kind of intelligence that's been found in a small group of animals. It's not hungry and it's not watching John Dashiell's behavior with his eyes. The behavior John could not explain. Dashiell's behavior, controlled only by food and light. The intelligence John was using was similar to a dog's intelligence. John's behavior was similar to a dog's behavior.
Question	What is the main point of the passage?
Answer	The passage describes John Dashiell's behavior in the woods, which was controlled by light and food.
Question	What is the main point of the passage?
Answer	The passage describes John Dashiell's behavior in the woods, which was controlled by light and food.
Question	What is the main point of the passage?
Answer	The passage describes John Dashiell's behavior in the woods, which was controlled by light and food.
Question	What is the main point of the passage?
Answer	The passage describes John Dashiell's behavior in the woods, which was controlled by light and food.
Episode 2	John Dashiell was reportedly lost in the dark woods of Selby Moorland. His wits, his calm, his quick thinking for survival turned into an extraordinary feat. Light 2 was my best friend and the rest of his life was. There's a strong hint of the kind of intelligence that's been found in a small group of animals. It's not hungry and it's not watching John Dashiell's behavior with his eyes. The behavior John could not explain. Dashiell's behavior, controlled only by food and light. The intelligence John was using was similar to a dog's intelligence. John's behavior was similar to a dog's behavior.
Question	What is the main point of the passage?
Answer	The passage describes John Dashiell's behavior in the woods, which was controlled by light and food.
Question	What is the main point of the passage?
Answer	The passage describes John Dashiell's behavior in the woods, which was controlled by light and food.
Question	What is the main point of the passage?
Answer	The passage describes John Dashiell's behavior in the woods, which was controlled by light and food.
Question	What is the main point of the passage?
Answer	The passage describes John Dashiell's behavior in the woods, which was controlled by light and food.