

Long/Short (continued)

Answer

1. A hedge fund is a type of investment group.
a. correct b. agreement c. market d. partnership
2. Hedge funds are not subject to the same regulations as mutual funds.
a. correct b. false c. investment d. mutual
3. All hedge funds are open to investors.
a. correct b. false c. investment d. returns
4. Hedge funds that do not carry their investments on their balance sheet are called:
a. open-end b. restricted c. long-term d. long
5. Hedge funds that do not carry their investments on their balance sheet are called:
a. restricted b. limited c. restricted d. restricted
6. Hedge funds that do not carry their investments on their balance sheet are called:
a. restricted b. limited c. restricted d. restricted
7. A hedge fund is a type of investment group that does not report to shareholders.
a. correct b. false c. none d. investment
8. The hedge fund industry is called:
a. correct b. open c. investment d. investment
9. Hedge funds are not subject to the same regulations as mutual funds.
a. correct b. false c. none d. investment
10. Hedge funds that do not carry their investments on their balance sheet are called:
a. open-end b. restricted c. partnership d. open
11. The hedge fund industry is called:
a. investment b. open c. private d. open
12. Hedge funds are not subject to the same regulations as mutual funds.
a. correct b. investment c. none d. private
13. Hedge funds that do not carry their investments on their balance sheet are called:
a. open b. restricted c. private d. none
14. The hedge fund industry is called:
a. correct b. open c. private d. investment
15. The hedge fund industry is called:
a. correct b. open c. private d. none
16. All of the following are hedge funds except:
a. open b. open c. none d. investment