

Homophones and homographs

Some words sound the same as other words. Choose words that sound the same to fill in the gaps in each sentence below.

Remember: A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word but has a different meaning and is sometimes spelled differently.

For example: I don't know where you are going to wear that hat!

Ben asked if he could come to _____ the match _____,
but we only have _____ tickets.

They're getting _____ tickets from the classroom over _____.

W _____ the corner of this coat - I can't tell w _____ it w _____.

We can't tell w _____ the _____ will be dry or wet.

Underline the homographs in the sentence below.

Remember: A homograph is a word that has the same spelling as another word but has a different meaning.

I went to a hockey match one cold Saturday. I wore a striped scarf and hat to match. Afterwards, I watched while Mom put a match to the fire.

In the following sentences, the homographs are underlined>. Read each sentence, and then write another sentence that changes the meaning of the homograph.

The old castle had a huge, square park.

I am planning an expedition to the South Pole.

Our dog likes me to throw a stick.

She won a new computer in the prize drawing.

He ground the maize to make flour.
