

WORKSHEET – INTRODUCTION, DATE _____

1. One year is the time it takes for the _____ to revolve around the _____.
2. One day is the time it takes for the _____ to revolve around its own _____.
3. One year is _____ days and _____ hours.
4. That is why every four years we have an extra _____.
5. The year is called a _____ year.
6. The side of the earth is _____.
7. The rocks that form mountains _____ in density than _____ in July.
8. The cones are located on the _____, creating a _____.
9. The 90° angle between the _____ lines gives us the latitude of the _____ and 0° is the _____.
10. The 0-degree meridian is called the _____.
11. The 180-degree meridian is called the _____.
12. There are _____ between any two meridians.
13. For every 15 degrees you travel north you have to set your watch one hour _____.
14. For every 15 degrees you travel east you have to set your watch one hour _____.