

Meeting a friend

I was sitting in the park when I saw a young man sitting on a bench. He was looking at a book. I went over to him and asked him what he was reading. He said it was a book about the history of the world. I was interested in what he was saying and we talked for a long time. He told me that he was a student at a university and that he was going to travel to many different countries. I was impressed by his knowledge and his passion for learning. We exchanged names and addresses and promised to write to each other. I was happy to meet a friend who shared my interests.
