

Directions Study the scene. What might the conflict be about?

Write what you think the two students are saying to each other. Then continue their conversation, or write a story to tell how they resolve the conflict.

