

TEACHER: COOK CLASS Spanish II WEEK: Sept 20- Sept 24/ 2010

	OBJECTIVE/OUTCOME	TEACHING STRATEGIES/ ACTIVITIES	ASSESSMENT	HOMEWORK
MONDAY	8.a Identify cognates, word origins, prefixes, suffixes, and sentence structure to derive meaning. (DOK 2) 1.d Request and provide goods, services, or information in familiar settings. (DOK 2) 1.b Respond appropriately to a variety of questions about familiar topics using simple sentences and justify answers. (DOK 3)	Start up: Bell ringer: Review previous lessons Review: Vocabulary related to different type of food. Vocabulary will be divided in beverages, meals, snacks and desserts. Vocabulary will also include verbs related to serving and requesting food. Review: irregular preterit verbs with irregular stem change. Dialogue: Students will practice their vocabulary and the vocabulary phrases related to situations in a restaurant, by creating a quick skit of a conversation in a restaurant.	Complete worksheets "stem changing verbs". Teacher observation of student participation during the skit presentation.	Study vocabulary related to food for quiz tomorrow.
TUESDAY	8.a Identify cognates, word origins, prefixes, suffixes, and sentence structure to derive meaning. (DOK 2) 1.d Request and provide goods, services, or information in familiar settings. (DOK 2) 2.d Comprehend the main idea and some supporting details of presentations from oral, print, and visual media. (DOK 3)	Start up: Bell ringer: Review previous lessons Review: Vocabulary related to food. Vocabulary game Introduce: the verbs ser and estar in the preterit and imperfect form. Explain when to use the preterit and when to use the imperfect. Complete practice Reading Comprehension: Read chapter 3 of the book "Viviana y su gran aventura Mexicana"	Vocabulary Quiz The preterit and the imperfect form of ser and estar handout. Teacher evaluation during reading comprehension.	Work on project :El Menu"