

2. What could I have done that would've been a smarter decision?

3. How did my poor choice impact other people in our community?

4. How can I prevent myself from making that poor choice again?

5. What should happen if I make the poor choice again? What is an appropriate consequence?