

Subject Pronouns

SUBJECT PRONOUNS
I - you	it - this, that
you - he	she - himself, her
he - it	they - themselves
she - us	you - ourselves

Choose the correct subject pronoun to substitute the underlined word or words.

- Example: Caroline finished her homework. (she, they) _____
- The girl was in class. (they) _____
 - Did you find that book? (she, they) _____
 - Excuse me for being late. (he, it) _____
 - My mother and I like to read books. (she, you) _____
 - Where is the school? (it, he) _____
 - Just it is really very small. (they, you) _____
 - The school was very large. (you, they) _____
 - She likes to exercise every day. (he, she) _____
 - Mr. Taylor is very old. (he, she) _____
 - Caroline is the owner of Carole's class. (it, they) _____
 - Somebody usually are very late. (you, they) _____
 - Everybody likes books very much. (he, she) _____
 - Nobody is in second grade. (she, you) _____
 - Tomorrow my dad is going to Paris. (he, he) _____