What is an Adverb?

Adverbs give us more information about the verb (action) in a sentence. An adverb tells us how, when, or where something was done.

Many of the adverbs that tell how are easy to find in a sentence because they end in the letters -ly.

Example: He ran quickly so he wouldn't miss the bus.

Some people think that all adverbs end in -ly, but they don't.

Only some of the adverbs that tell us when end in -ly.

Example: They rarely call me. We always sing together. Amy will speak now.

Few adverbs that tell us where end in -ly.

Example: You can put your project here. The sun is shining outside.

Circle the adverb in each sentence below. On the line in front of the sentence, tell whether the adverb answers how, when, or where.
