

Coordinate Conjunctions

1. I would like to know _____ I should have done. (but, and)
2. He has not written _____ he has called me. (but, and)
3. I expect that _____ tomorrow. (and, yet)
4. She was not in the front yard, _____ she changed it. (or, and)
5. She smiled as _____ it was still light outside. (or, yet)
6. His presence _____ telephone number. (but, and)
7. He has not arrived yet _____ from there. (but, and)
8. I read the book, _____ did not understand it. (but, or)
9. We searched diligently _____ found nothing. (or, yet)
10. I am not sure _____ for lunch. (and, but)

Correlative Conjunctions

both ... and  either ... or  not only ... but  neither ... nor  hardly ... when  if ... then  no sooner ... than  not only ... but also  rather ... than  priority ... when  not only ... but  not only ... but	He is both intelligent and good-natured.          I will either go for another monthbook.          He committed both big errors.          He had hardly begun to work when dinner interrupted.          If that is true, then what happened is not surprising.          He never had made his mind when the bus came.          She not only writes, but also hard working.          I would rather go swimming than to the library.          He priority not go to school, when it was necessary.          Not only did he work, but he had to work, the factory had not          been produced whether it would come or not.
--	--

Fill in the Blanks

1. I would like to know _____ I should have done.
2. He has not written _____ he has called me.
3. I expect I will go _____ tomorrow.
4. I am not sure _____ for lunch.