

Therapies

Across

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. the ability to see and feel what the client is experiencing. 4. A psychodynamic therapist may find a client does not want to address a particular area of their lives and this is known as _____. 7. free _____ is related to Psychodynamic Therapy. | 10. believed psychological problems arise from unconscious conflicts. 11. _____ positive regard is important in Humanistic Therapy. 13. Type of technique used by behavioristic therapists to control phobias. 14. behavioristic therapy is _____ oriented. |
|--|---|

Down

2. type of therapy that uses the techniques of reflection.
3. in psychodynamic psychology _____ content is what an object means in a dream.
4. client centered therapy is based on the work of _____.
5. Freudian therapy is _____.
6. This type of therapy wants to just change the problem and is not based on insight.
8. Occurs when a client reacts to their therapist as another important individual in their lives.
9. _____ behavioral therapy involves changing thinking to change behavior.
12. Freud called _____ the Royal Road to the Unconscious.