

AUDIENCE 2

The main people that want or need to know this information are...

Other people that could stand to hear this information are...

(Use Evidence from the Text)

STYLE 3

Tone

Devices

Writing Style (sentence length, paragraph length, diction, literary devices, conventions)

What is the relationship between the writing style and the audience?

EVALUATION 7

Most important claim or information?

Which info is new?

Which have we heard before?

Where is argument strongest? Weakest?

Argument Analysis: Is the Claim Valid?

EVIDENCE 4

Is there enough evidence?

Is the evidence relevant?

Is the evidence accurate?

Logic and Persuasion 6

Logical Fallacies & Pers. Techniques?

Fairness/Bias/Logic Balance?

ANALYSIS 5

This argument assumes that...

This argument failed to consider...

This argument is explicitly using...

This argument is implying that...

REVISION

- What elements of this media's design could have been changed, and to what effect?
- What other media forms could author have considered, and to what effect?

*NEXT STEPS

What would make you to think about, read, or "do" more?
What other ideas or topics should be considered?