

Match the following names

_____ 1. Chlorophyll

a. Temporary proliferation in the night, of chloroplasts

_____ 2. Starch

b. An intracellular product for temporary storage that has a high level of energy

_____ 3. Stroma

c. An organelle, plastid

_____ 4. Prokaryotes

d. An abbreviation for "Green House" as they neither follow the C₃ nor C₄ pathway in their photosynthetic process and photosynthesis

_____ 5. Grain

e. An organelle that is absent in animal cells, but present in plants, especially among dicots after chloroplasts, which are plastids

_____ 6. Leaf

f. A leafy branch, sometimes the primary nutrient source

_____ 7. CO₂

g. A gas molecule or atomic substance

_____ 8. Tap

h. A narrow vertical incision made that allows latex to flow followed by "tapping"

_____ 9. Light

i. It is a characteristic of making chloroplasts

_____ 10. Water

j. An organic product of photosynthesis including

_____ 11. Oil

k. A fatty acid or compound

_____ 12. Leptocarpus

l. A long slender something, rod

_____ 13. Starch

m. The two most useful energy storage