

II. Underline the complete subject.

1. Jamal is headed for the picnic.
2. Her brother and my aunt met at a party.
3. Correct grammar is important in good writing.
4. In my class, we like to discuss and use pairs of winter boots.
5. Jim is sure it's her favorite kind of music.

III. Underline the complete predicate.

1. Her uncle is busily scrubbing the floor of his porch.
2. He and I have always enjoyed walking to the park and back.
3. She seemed not quite up to the task at hand.
4. I never promised you a rose garden.
5. You should call Bill before you buy that motorcycle.

6. Emily and Alex are his firstborn children.