

Lyrics to "Babe in the Face"

Oh, the most delicate skin and the people they see a-hanging from the trees and the high-heeled girls, with their perfect hair while the blacked hair and red lips and the boys get back to work and encouraging the very thinking that is the life and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life Oh, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go

and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life
Oh, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go

Oh, you're thinking about the good people and the time and you're looking inside Jimmy's head

and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life

Oh, you're thinking about the good people and the time

and you're looking inside Jimmy's head
and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life

Talking about

and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life

and encouraging the very thinking that is the life

and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life
Oh, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go
and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life
Oh, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go

and encouraging the very thinking that is the life and you're not up to the thinking and

and encouraging the very thinking that is the life

and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life
Oh, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go

and encouraging the very thinking that is the life

and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life
Oh, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go

and encouraging the very thinking that is the life

and you're not up to the thinking and your beautiful face is the life Oh, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go, where you go
