

Improve Your Writing With Similes

Name _____

Figurative language includes special forms that writers use to help readers make a strong connection to their words. A simile is one kind of figurative language. It makes a comparison of two unlike things using the words "like" or "as".

Similes can make your writing more interesting. Read the sentences below. Replace the simple adjective in each sentence with a simile to make a stronger impression.

1. The man was sad.

2. Veronica was sleepy.

3. The homework was difficult.

4. Our kitchen was messy.

5. Raft's burrito was spicy.

6. David's Internet connection was fast.

7. The baby girl felt need, wanting.

8. The movie was exciting.

9. The umbrella is wet.

10. Jeremy and Hilary are friends.
